

IOSR
J
H
S
S

Contents:

Widowhood, Patriarchy, and Gendered Power in Orodo, Southeast Nigeria	01-06
The Genealogical Approach Re-examined: Ancestral Reconstruction as a Mechanism for Analysing Social Transformation in Modern Field Research	07-11
Self-Esteem And Safe Sex Behaviours Among Adolescents in Federal Government Secondary Schools	12-21
Exploring Bac 3 Students’ Perspectives on Analyzing Fiction Through Essay Writing at Isp Bunia	22-26
‘Huh Tu Pu’: Negotiating Konyak Identity through Tattooing	27-34
Historically analyzing Gujarati Tribes based on their literary tradition	35-38
Gestion Des Eaux Usees Domestiques Dans Les Quartiers De Niarela Et Bozola, Commune li Du District De Bamako	39-46
Vernacular Statecraft: The Domestication, Redirection, and Reinterpretation of Welfare Schemes by Rural Women in Andhra Pradesh	47-51
Socioeconomic Dimensions of Nutritional Anthropometry among Village Households within 10 km radius of IB Thermal Power Station at Banaharpali of Odisha, India	52-87
Structuring The Cosmogenetic Model of The Daodejing in Three Annotated Vietnamese Translations	88-93